Creehan Resurrects Cuvee

Destin, Florida (May 2 2010) - Celebrity Chef Tim Creehan has partnered with Alabama entrepreneurs Tim and Pam Wellborn to bring the former Cuvee Beach back to life. Renovated, renamed and reimagined as Cuvee Bistro, the bar will reopen on May 7, 2010, while the restaurant follows suit officially on Mother's Day.

"I've always loved the Cuvee Beach property," Creehan states. "To be able to bring my thirty years of Destin restaurant experience and the cuisine of myself and Executive Chef Jason Gouker is very exciting."

Creehan's Cuvee will offer his award winning edibles at bistro prices, with French, Asian and Mediterranean influences. Diners can expect pizza, pasta, oysters and French onion soup to augment Chef Gouker and Creehan's signature dishes. Encore appearances on the new menus include Grouper Vince, Smoked Tomato Soup, Hot Crawfish Salad, Banana Cream Pie, Eggplant Medallions with Crabmeat, and Seared Tuna Rare.

Cuvee Bistro will be the flagship restaurant under the Tim Creehan & Company banner, which also houses the catering and event facility the Great Events Center. Creehan sold his Beach Walk to the Henderson Park Inn and ceased operations there at the end of April. Cuvee Bistro is located at 36120 Emerald Coast Parkway in Destin.
