Media Invited as Beaches of South Walton's Top Chefs Compete for Florida Title

Santa Rosa Beach, FL – August 2008 – The top chefs of the Beaches of South Walton will go head-to-head Saturday during Santa Rosa Beach's first annual Southern Breeze Gulf Coast Chef Challenge. This event, open only to the media, will feature six invited chefs creating signature dishes during a live, one-hour cooking competition. The Chef Challenge is part of the Southern Breeze Wine + Culinary Festival, a three-day event that travels across the Gulf Coast states educating and entertaining guests with wine dinners, wine tastings, seminars, and a walkabout brunch. The weekend-long event brings travelers from all over the United States as well as locals to the Gulf Coast of Florida to celebrate food, wine, and coastal culture September 12-14, 2008.

The Southern Breeze Gulf Coast Chef Challenge will kick off Saturday's festivities at 12 p.m. This event will take place in the DCS by Fisher & Paykel Theater located at the Gulf Place Amphitheater. Each participant will be given a common protein and choose a starch and vegetable used to create a signature dish during this "Iron Chef" style competition performed on state-of-the-art DCS cooking systems.

Chefs vying for Florida's title include Chef Dan Pettis, The Boatyard; Chef Craig McNeill, Santa Rosa Beach Club; Chef Javier, Smiling Fish Café; Chef Andi Bell, Seering's Piano Bar; Chef Charles Lee, Copper Grill; and Chef Brannon Janca, The Lake Place.

Chef Tim Creehan of Beach Walk Crystal Beach in Destin, Fla. will be on hand to host the live one-hour cooking demonstration. At the end of the hour, a distinctive panel of judges will select the event's most outstanding chef to be named Florida's Top Chef. The winner will go on to compete against winners from Alabama, Louisiana, and Mississippi later this year for title of Southern Breeze's 2008 Gulf Coast Chef Challenge Chef of the Year.

The winner will be announced at 1:30 p.m. prior to the Grand Wine Tasting Saturday afternoon. The Grand Wine Tasting, held on the scenic grounds of the Gulf Place Amphitheater, will feature a sampling of over 150 unique wines not readily available in stores in a relaxed, yet invigorating atmosphere. Wine and culinary seminars throughout the day help to heighten the Grand Wine Tasting experience as Chef Tim Creehan performs live cooking demonstrations paired with wines presented by Michael Bryan, Executive Director of Atlanta Wine School. Most wines being poured during Saturday's event will be available for purchase and all retail wine sales are sponsored by La Botana.

The event in Santa Rosa Beach marks the last stop during the fifth anniversary of the Southern Breeze Wine + Culinary Festival. The 2009 season begins March 6-8 in Biloxi, Miss.; and continues April 3-5 in Baton Rouge, La.; May 1-3 in Orange Beach, Ala. and once again will visit Northwest Florida during the fall.
